A Shrewd Swindler--- News From the Departments.

HEADQUARTERS BULLETIN Appointment of Committees - Warning Against Frauds-Good News from Alabama-Report of the 18th Encampment. TOLEDO, O., Oct. 11. With this is forwarded General Orders, No. 7. announcing the Committees appointed at the last National Encampment, for the information of comrades of the G.A.R. It will be observed that Past Commander-in-Chief George S. Merrill, Lawrence, Mass., heads the Committee on Pensions, a position to which his marked fidelity to soldiers' interests and large experience in pension legislation richly entitles him. Past Commander-in-Chief Louis Wagner, Gen. C. H. Grosvenor, of Athens, who, by the way, is sure to go to Congress this year from his Ohio) district, and the eloquent Corp. Tanner, who left both legs on the battlefield, retain their places on the committee. The resolution passed by the 18th annual Encampment, which follows the announcement of the Pension Committee, will be found worthy the consideration of Grand Army comrades who desire to secure the best pension legislation attainable in behalf of the veterans, or their widows and orphans.

The concluding paragraph of General Orders No. 7, in which comrades are warned against the imposition of one Capt. Almon D. Tuttle, who has been working the Grand Army from Maine to Mexico, is a most timely announcement of the action of the last Encampment in declaring this man though he is yet one smart enough to completely take in the comrades wherever he has appeared To show you how bold and daring the man actually is, your correspondent need only relate a little circumstance, the result of personal observation. The third week in July the Grand Encampment was held at Minneapolis, and in an account of the proceedings, which were published from day to day, there appeared the announcement that one Capt. Almon Tuttle, announcing himself as an Arctic explorer, had been pronounced a fraud by the Grand Army. In that Encampment, Judge Bryant, Commander of Wilson Colwell Post, La Crosse, Wis., sat as a delegate from his Department.

The fourth week in July your correspondent visited La Crosse, and was cordially invited to visit a Post Camp-fire, when, wonder of wonders, who should be present as the lion of the evening, fittingly introduced by Commander Bryant, but Capt. Almon Tuttle, who, in addition to his claim as an Arctic explorer, announced himself the only original

KING OF THE CANNIBAL ISLANDS. and proceeded to give a lecture, compared with his lecture, using a chart upon which there was a drawing of a sperm whale, an old sailor, who sat on a window seat, just behind your correspondent, expressed great delight. He had been a whaler himself, and recognized the description of the whale and his antics, which was by the book, with such remarks as "That's so," "I've been thar," etc., etc. But as the great orator proceeded, the astonishment, that first took the form of a slowlygathering cloud on the veteran sailor's face, grew at last into a storm of supreme disgust, until, at last, he rose from his seat, and with the remarks, "That's more than I can stand; I've heard enough," stalked the whole length of the long hall to the outer door and appeared no more that night.

A COLLECTION FOLLOWS.

After the lecture a collection was taken up, Commander Bryant having made a very eloquent plea for the unfortunate and aged "comrade," and over $30 was realized. The story the aged "comrade" told was that he had made his way from the Sandwich Islands via Texas to attend the G.A.R. Encampment; that while stopping in a hotel in Texas a fire broke out, destroying all his valuables and money; that he had visited the Encampment and enjoyed the satisfaction of once more meeting his fellow-soldiers, from whom he had been so long separated, and was then around lecturing to secure the means for publication of the only true account ever given to the world of the civilizing of the Sandwich Islands and the discovery of the North Pole. Some of the stories told by the renowned inventor are exceedingly rich; as, for instance, his account of a

SANDWICH ISLAND WEDDING, according to the custom followed when he was first cast ashore upon the island and before the regenerating process of his Christian teachings. When a Sandwich Island belle was asked to make choice between two suitors-very conveniently there never were but the two-her father had prepared an image of clay, resembling the girl as nearly as possible, (a job which the skill of the average Sandwich Islander in the plastic arts, of course, enabled him to make very exact,) which image was set up in a publie place as a target. Then the two rival Sandwich Island beaux, armed with bows and arrows, took aim at the clay girl's heart, when the one whose arrow took the closest aim was awarded the real girl while the less fortunate young man was promptly dispatched and

BOASTED FOR THE WEDDING FEASTcertainly a very prompt and satisfactory manner of dealing with an unsuccessful rival, so far as the lucky young heathen was concerned. When it is borne in mind that all of Capt. Almon Tuttle's stories are alike marvelously conceived the wonder grows that the G.A.R. has allowed itself to be so egregiously taken in. GENERAL ORDERS, NO. 7.

HEADQUARTERS, GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, TOLEDO, O., Oct. 10, 1884. General Orders, No. 7. I. The following committees were appointed at the last National Encampment, and are published for the information of comrades: COMMITTEE ON SONS OF VETERANS. Louis Wagner, Philadelphia, Pa.; Ira M. Hedges. Haverstraw, N. Y.; John D. Billings, Canton, Mass.; H. P. Lloyd, Cincinnati, O.; L. T. Dickason, Dan-ville, III.; Edward Nicar, South Bend, Ind.; H. W. Pond, Fort Scott, Kan.; Rush J. Shank, Lansing, Mich.; W. F. Chamberlin, Hannibal, Mo.; H. M. Nevius, Red Bank, N. J.; John C. Linehan, Pena-cook, N. H.; Frank M. Smith, Baltimore, Md.; Benj. Williams, Rockland, Me.

Committee to consider proposed changes in the Ritual, with authority to receive propositions for any changes submitted by vote of any Department Encampment: Ben D. House, Indianapolis, Ind.; David Lanning, Columbus, O.; John S. Wheeler, Red Bank, N. J.; A. J. Sellers, Philadelphia, Pa.; James I. Meech, Lynn, Mass. The subject of "Uniform," which was laid over as unfinished business, was also referred to this Committee to consider pending amendments to Art. IV., Chap. I, Rules and Regulations: A. P. Ketcham, 93 Nassau street, New York city; J. W. Burst, Sycamore, Ill.; W. J. Marshalt, Chattanooga, Tenn.; I. S. Bangs, Waterville, Me.; R. B. Brown, Zanesville, O. Believing there should be a united effort upon the part of the Grand Army of the Republic to procure additional and much needed legislation upon the subject of pensions by Congress, the National Encampment at its annual session held in Baltimore, June, 1882, referred the whole matter to a Special Committee. This committee has been continued from year to year, and is now composed of the following comrades: George S. Merrill, Lawrence, Mass.; Louis Wagner, Philadelphia, Pa.; C. H. Grosvenor, Athens, Ohio; James Tanuer, Brooklyn, N. Y.; S. S. Burdett, Washington, D. C.; John C. Linchan, Penacook, N. H.; O. R. McNary, Leavenworth, Kan. This committee has been much embarrassed and its efforts greatly weakened by the individual action of Posts in sending resolutions and memorials to Congress upon this subject. To prevent this the National Encampment at its last session passed the following resolution: "Resolved, That all petitions, resolutions and memorials by Posts in regard to pension legislation, be required to be forwarded to National Headquarters through Department Headquarters, and that Posts be forbidden to make separate and independent applications to Congress for legislation on the subject of pensions."

II. Comrades are warned against the following persons who are reported to be imposing upon members and Posts throughout the country: Adrian D. Ruggles, a dishonorably discharged member of Post 130, Department Massachusetts; he If five feet eight inches in hight, lame in right leg, was a member of 38th Mass., and claims to be a druggist. A person calling himself C. Israel Johnson, and claiming to hail from Prescott Post, Providence, Capt. Almon D. Tuttle, once a member of Meade Post, Department of Potomac; a plausible talker, about 75 years old.

Geo. S. Upstone, Nokomis, Ill.: Cottingham Post, No. 236, of this place, held a Camp-fire and Reunion at Bone's Grove, three-fourths of a mile north of town, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1 and 2. Invitations had been issued to Posts in all towns accessible and to some companies of National Guard to be present, and preparations were made on a large scale for their reception and entertainment. The weather had been untavorable for two weeks previous and rain fell on the first day of the Reunion. which, with an accident on the railroad, combined to deter many from being present on that day, and the program, as arranged, was not carried out. Late in the afternoon F. D. Hubbel Post, of Hillsboro, 60 men, under command of Comrade Trues-dale, and Knight Post, of Irving, 40 men, under Comrade Crissman, arrived and were escorted to camp by the local Post. The second day was bright and beautiful and at an early hour Co, B, 5th I. N. G., commanded by Capt. A. Crooker arrived. This company is composed of young men, is extremely well drilled and finely uniformed, and by their soldierly bearing and the perfection of their drill won praises from all. At 10:30 a.m. the procession was formed of the military and Posts, and, led by the Oconce Brass Band, marched through the streets to the depot to receive visitors and speakers, whence they marched to the grove, where the address of welcome was delivered on behalf of the town. Dinner was then served, after which Rev. J. D. Roth, Chaplain of Cottingham Post, we comed the visiting comrades in a good speech. Hon. E. R. Roe, of Bloomington, Ill., was then introduced and addressed the audience, and was followed by Hon, Geo, Chaffee, of Shelbyville. Both the gentlemen made speeches which were full of patriotism and roused the enthusiasm of the veterans to a high pitch, which was increased by the singing by a fine quartet of old war songs and by patriotic airs played by the band.

The attendance was large, being estimated at in the South, gave a very interesting description of which the tales of Liliput and Brobdignag or 5,000. Still, it was small compared to what it | the terrors of those rebel pens. After supper a rousing Camp-fire was held, the quartet eading off in old songs which the boys had often sang around camp-fires of a different character. The old soldiers joining in the chorus of such songs as "Rally Round the Flag," "Marching Through Georgia," etc., became wild with enthusiasm, throwing up their caps and cheering. Maj. McWilliams, of Litchfield, who was present, mounted the stand and gave the boys another mpromptu speech, which was interrupted with cheers, the men getting more and more enthusiastic as the singers would start another familiar song. The surroundings of tents and camp-tires revived memories of bygone days both mournful and joyous, and the vets could not compose themselves to rest, many sitting round the camp-fires till daylight, recounting scenes in which they took part or which came under their observation. The third day was also fine and the exercises at the

DEP'T OF THE INTERIOR, PENSION OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 18, 1884. [Special Examination Division.] H. W. Pond, Esq., Commander G.A.R., Department of Kansas, Fort Scott, Bourbon Co., Kan. DEAR SIR: This office desires to extend thanks or the co-operation thus far received from your Department toward the completion of the record of surviving soldiers and sailors late of the Union Army, which have recently been established, and at the same time to state that much remains yet to be done before said record will be complete. Of the 324 Posts comprised in your Department, only 75 have forwarded returns. There are only 300,000 names in all on file in this office. The majority of these have been obtained from the Grand Army of the Republic, but many regimental associations have forwarded lists of members, and letters from

private individuals are received daily, each giving the late service of one or more ex-soldiers. The Special Examiners of this office also forward whom they meet while taking testimony. From the records on file there were furnished during the month of

May, 3,343 names for use in 664 cases June, 8,097 " " 1,190 " July, 6,061 " " 760 " Aug., 8,070 " " " 917 " making a total of the four months named of 25,573 This fact alone must prove to many members of

he G.A.R., as it has to this office, that this is the best opportunity ever offered the organization to aid ex-soldiers of the Union Army.

It is hoped that you will give this matter your personal attention, and again urge the Post Comnanders and comrades of your Department to render all assistance in their power to perfect a record which, from its very foundation, has rendered such material aid to so many old and worthy comrades; iven, it was impossible to adjudicate their claims. If there are any returns at your Headquasters, it is hoped that you will forward them at once to this office, and at the same time make the effort to have complete returns on file at the end of the present Very truly, yours, C. C. WALKER, Acting Commissioner. HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF KANSAS,

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, FORT SCOTT, KAN., Oct. 1, 1884. The attention of Post Commanders is respectfully called to the above and foregoing letter from the Commissioner of Pensions. In May of this year blank service cards were sent to each Post in this Department, and notice given in General Orders, No. 5, with an urgent appeal that they be filled up and forwarded to these Headquarters. Will not the Post Commanders give this matter attention at once? Posts not having forwarded the cards, should do so without delay, direct to the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C. Posts that have misplaced or have never received the cards will please apply to the Commissioner of Pensions for the number required, and on receipt have some comrade who writes a plain hand fill up from the Descriptive Roll and forward direct to him at H. PUSHING ALONG THE GOOD WORK. From Iowa comes, in neat circular form, General Order, No. 1, of Dep't Pres. Mattie Dawson, Agency City; also, her circular of instructions sent out with applications for charter, both of which are replete with valuable information to all interested. The Woman's Relief fair to keep pace with the foremost of the many bounteous charities of that prosperous State. An increasing interest is reported, and a feeling of good will that is most gratifying to the President. The annual Convention will be held at Davenport simultaneously with the Department Encampment, G.A.R. Mrs. Rosa M. Martin, President of George Wright Corps, Portland, Oregon, writes that the Corps was reorganized Sept. 19; that it is composed of faithful, earnest workers devoted to the cause, who will make report of good work accomplished. She thinks the secret the grand work. Oregon has no Department as yet, but Corps are fast forming and are marching shoulder to shoulder toward forming a extending the Order. It is recommended that each permanent organization that shall prove an Department prepare a price-list to send out with honor to the Order.

Minnesota, has her General Order, No. 1, ready for printing, when she will immediately issue a call for Convention, ordered by National than the requisite number of Corps being now fully formed. Mrs. Wright is also President of Geo. N. Morgan Corps, of Minneapolis, under whose auspices a liferary and musical entertainment was given Sept. 18. It is reported to have been a most enjoyable occasion-largely attended and, all-in-all, a grand success, "MAUMEE" ATTENDS THE CAMP-FIRE.

It seems quite impossible to complete a single one of these weekly letters without some reference to Forsyth Post or Corps, and this time it is of a Camp-fire held at the hall Wednesday, Oct. 2, when a most delightful social time was indulged in by the ladies and gentlemen of these organizations. Some thoughtful comrade will doubtless contribute a detailed account of our pleasures, but I deem a partial repetition pardonable to your ears, inasmuch as our National President was one of the honored guests | the Relief Corps. called out for remarks. Need I say that the brief impromptu address was humorous, pathetic, instructive and, above all, well timed? A Camp-fire will be held under the auspices of Army Workers," and the progress already made, called forth some telling responses from the comrades, which can but find echo in the heart of every soldier who holds in grateful remembrance the self-sacrifice and devotion of these noble women, these ministering angels, sent in an hour of sorest need. When the petition reaches this Post I dare say it will show no staring blank to mark the ingratitude of Ohio soldiery.

It is seldom our National President takes a holiday. With the varied duties of her office, together with her journalistic labors,-not to speak of the many other claims upon every pair of able and willing hands,-there is but little time for recreation.

On Thursday of last week, however, she was seekers, and in company with her daughter boarded the train for Bryan, O., to attend the Reunion of the 111th Ohio, of which Gen. Sherwood was Colonel, the General having preceded them.

It was one of the genuine soldier entertainments,-everybody merry, nobody sad. The Bryan ladies served a sumptuous dinner, and in many ways contributed to the pleasure and comfort of the guests. Before leaving Mrs. Sherwood gained from them a willing and enthusiastic promise to organize a Relief Corps without delay. The principal work accomplished at Headquarters during the week has been the preparing of General Orders, No. 2, which will soon find its way to each and every Corps. Comment is unnecessary, as it is here produced in Mark the rapid and perfect growth of the Order, and who shall say but that ere long every Post of the Grand Army throughout the States will have its Corps of Relief for the disabled comrade and his needy ones, and for the many lists of those, not members of the G.A.R., building up of the other objects of the G.A.R. The order follows:

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 2. HEADQUARTERS, WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS, AUXILIARY TO THE G.A.R., TOLEDO, O., Oct. 3, 1884.

General Orders, No. 2. The National President congratulates the Woman's Relief Corps upon the interest attending the extension of the Order, notwithstanding the attendant distractions of a Presidential campaign, and thanks the Grand Army of the Republic for its ordial co-operation, as officially expressed in General Order, No. 2, of the Commander-in-Chief, John S. Kountz, and by all the Department Commanders in General Orders or through the regular official channels. Comrades everywhere are rendering returns of Assistant Inspectors, forwarding one to cordial assistance in the work of organization. material aid to so many old and worthy comrades; and in innumerable cases, without the aid thus fact that the Woman's Relief Corps is the only partment Inspectors. It is the duty of the Department Inspectors. organization which has been recognized as auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, as officially expressed in National Encampment, or privileged o use the words "Auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic." Such resolution will be found in the report of the 15th Encampment, held at Indianapolis, June, 1881, and reads as follows: Resolved, That we approve of the project of organizing a Woman's National Relief Corps.

Resolved, That such Woman's Relief Corps may use, under such title, the words 'Auxiliary to the G.A.R.,' by special indorsement of the National Encampment of the G, A.R." The 17th and 18th Encampments reaffirmed that decision when at Denver in 1883 and at Minneapois in 1884 they recognized the organization as fully formed, and gave it a practical "Godspeed" in its entire work. The fraternal cordiality with which | needs the help of all loyal women who are pure the Department and Post Commanders are seeking | in life and loyal in heart. The widows and orphans to put into effect the decisions of the supreme will, | need their help. DEPARTMENTS. I. The completion of the organization of the following Departments is announced; Department of Dakota, Ahna S. Bennett, Sioux Falls, President. Provisional Department of California, Lizzie D'A. Kinne, 2520 Fort street, San Francisco, President, Provisional Department of Minnesota, Kate C.

II. The Department of Indiana, having been im perfectly organized at Elkhart in June, the Na-tional President decided, upon consultation with Past Judge Advocate-Gen. Jas. R. Carnahan, whose compilation of "Decisions and Opinions" was adopted by the Grand Army at Denver, to declare full; likewise, rosters of the officers of the a vacancy in the office and withhold the charter. in a few days, bringing the recommendation This was done, and a successful reorganization of a 10-cent fund for the relief of Anna Ella completed at Ft. Wayne, with Mrs. Alice Grittin, Elkhart, President. APPOINTMENTS.

III. The following additional appointments are Lois F. S. Holbrooke, Toledo, O., Chief National Instituting and Installing Officer.

Ida L. Lincoln, Salt Lake City, Utah, Instituting and installing Officer for the Department of Utah, Montana, and Idaho.

COMMITTEES. IV. The following Committees are announced: Orphans—Mrs. Abbie M. Gannett, Malden, Mass.; Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mrs. Juliet G. Howe, York, Neb. On Code of Discipline—Mrs. Mary S. Bergen, To-ledo, O.; Mrs. Mattie B. Moulton, Laconia, N. H.; Mrs. R. S. Beadle, Cambridge, Mass.
On Testimonial to the Past National President— Mrs. Emma S. Hampton, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Cora Day Young, Toledo, O.; Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, Topeka, Kan.; Mrs. Adatine P. Kent, Portsmouth, N. The compilation of the National Ritual has been entrusted to the Past National President, Mrs. E. Florence Barker, Malden, Mass.

GOOD AND WELFARE CARDS. V. Good and welfare eards, embracing a series of juestions and responses, to be used as a suitable closing for a Corps, are now ready, and will be issued with all future supplies. Department Presidents will notify all Corps not yet supplied to secure copies of the same, that the work may be uniform in every Corps. A membership card has been prepared, whose purchase is optional with the Corps, but which members may find it pleasant to be in possession of in visiting other Corps.

BADGES AND ELECTROTYPES. VI. The new badges will be issued with all future supplies. Corps desiring to substitute the same will make requisition through the Departments. A uniform price of fifty cents each will be charged by Departments. Officers' badges will be owned by the Corps; members may purchase their own. The badges of Corps, Department and National officers will be distinguished by color of the ribbon. The badge will consist of the Maltese cross, with the G.A.R. center piece, suspended from a bar pin. Past officers' badges will be distinguished as follows: From the pin of Past National officers will be suspended a red Geneva cross; suspended from the pin of Past Department officers, a silver shield with the letters F., C. and R., and from the pin of Past Corps officers, the same shield in bronze.
VII. Electrotypes for the use of subordinate Corps may be secured by Departments on application to National Headquarters.

CREDENTIALS AND REVISED BLANKS. VIII. The failure of Delegates to appear with proper credentials in National and Department nventions having caused unnecessary and tedious delay, a form of credentials has been prepared, which may be secured by Departments for distribution upon application to the National Treasurer. Revised blanks of Secretary and Treasurer, as ordered by the National Convention, and revised application for charter will be issued with future supplies. Each Department President is hereby called upon to furnish National Headquarters with a roster of Corps, to which shall be added additions quarterly as they may be made. Each Department should provide a printed roster for distribution at Department Convention. Relief Corps in States and Territories where no Department has been formed, permanent or provisional, will forward a per capita of six cents a quarter, direct to the National Treasurer, upon receipt of blanks. Departments will forward a per capita of two cents for Corps of Iowa is manifestly in earnest and bids | every member in the Department. The attention of Department officers is called to the importance of keeping, for convenient reference, copies of all official letters sent out.

DECISIONS AND OPINIONS. IX. Decisions and opinions of the Commanderin-Chief and Judge Advocate-General of the Grand Army of the Republic, compiled by Gen. James R. Carnahan, Judge Advocate-General, 1882-83, and adopted and approved by the National Encamp ment July, 1883, will stand as recognized authority in the Woman's Relief Corps, so far as its decisions are applicable to questions arising in the Corps. DEPARTMENT RECOMMENDATIONS.

X. Departments in arrears will call attention of all subordinate Corps to Sec. 3, Article IV, Chapter work beautiful, and easily mastered by any V. Ruies and Regulations, and the necessity of a one who is as intensely interested as herself in prompt discharge of all dues, in order that the De partments may remit promptly to the National Treasurer, to the end that the National organization shall not be retarded or crippled in its work of applications, requesting each Corps forming, wher-Prov. Pres. Kate C. Wright, Department of ever possible, to send the amount due on supplies requisite with charter fees. The National President is also satisfied that if the charter is closed promptly at the date of institution of the Corps, that much confusion and misunderstanding will be Headquarters, to form the Department, more avoided, and that a Corps starting out squarely, with supplies paid for in advance, will do much better work than to begin work with a debt hanging over them.

XI. Quarterly and Inspectors' blanks for use in Departments will be issued by the National Treasurer, Mrs. Lizabeth A. Turner, No. 14 Temple Place, Boston, in such quantities as will be named on requisition from the Department. Also, all supplies in bulk for the use of Departments in equip-ment of subordinate Corps. Corps formed and in need of supplies will make all requisitions through Department Treasurers.

XII. Attention of Departments is called to the act that by resolution of the National Convention, Departments may allow such salary to Department ecretary as the Department Convention or Board of Directors may fix, which salary is usually a percentage of the per capita received. Also that each Department may elect one honorary member annually from the G.A.R. Also, that each Depart ment may establish a relief fund for the help of army nurses, widows, orphans, or such general purposes as may not come under the local work of

ON RESIGNATIONS.

XIII. The National President earnestly recommends that Presidents, Secretaries, and Treasurers Her allusion to the "Committee on Relief for of Corps, or those actively discharging the duties Corps upon accepting similar executive offices, Department or National. The President believes this to be promotive of general good in the Order, as it brings new workers to the front and gives officers promoted the time for undivided attention to the duties of their respective offices. It should be the exception, not the rule, where a Corps member holds two offices, and the President hopes that in time all Corps officers promoted to Department offices, will see the propriety of resigning a subor-dinate office when she accepts one of a higher grade; though, by unanimous request from her Corps, she may continue to serve in both. JOINT ENTERTAINMENTS.

XIV. Joint entertainments of Posts and Corps for the creation of a retief fund, apart from the contingent funds of each organization, consecrated to charity and apportioned according to the demands upon each, is most earnestly recommended, as observed to fall into line with the pleasure- greater enthusiasm and sympathy are engendered where the two organizations work side by side. A oint Camp-fire at least once a month, when agreeable to the Post, will be found a source of great pleasure and an incentive to greater work no sick or disheartened old soldier, or the helpless widows and orphans of soldiers, pass unaided of support and sympathy where a Relief Corps exists, Let no Post be without its Grand Army hall, furnished and fitted with the patriotic emblems of the Order; its altar properly draped; its Bible in place, and a flag provided under which the comrades may repair to the joyous Reunion, or assemble around the bivouse of the dead. Work for the Grand Army includes all these,

XV. Corps Presidents will impress upon every member of a Corps the importance of familiarizing herself with the Rules and Regulations, and o giving strict attention to the unwritten work of the Order; of the committing of the Ritual by officers of the Corps, and of a systematic discharge of all duties in hand. The direction of a second reading of all orders from authority before the Corps, and of filing all official papers with the Secretary, is the imperative duty of every Corps President. She should also impress upon members that in giving proper attention to and obedience of all orders, rules and regulations, they honor both the Order and themselves.

ANNUAL INSPECTIONS.

XVI. Department inspections will be made so they are well over before the annual elections in December of Corps officers, and it is recommended that this be done before the cold weather sets in, that attendance may be full and for the convenience and pleasure of Assistant Inspectors and Corps membership. Department Presidents will appoint such Assistant Inspectors as may be necessary to aid the Department Inspector, and save expense to the Corps. In Departments where Corps are widely apart an Inspector may be appointed within the Corps, and it is recommended that the Senior Vice-President or Corps Chaplain be instructed to serve in this capacity. Department Inspectors will report for instruction to Mrs. Sarah C. Nichols, National Inspector, Auburn, N. Y. Each Department Inspector will receive and consolidate the the Department President and one to the National ment President to see that the work in her Department is properly and promptly performed, ADMONITION TO WORK.

XVII. The National President earnestly admonshes the few isolated Corps which are engaged in unprofitable discussion and strife-begetting dissensions over the admission to membership in the Corps of all loyal women, to remember that in America the majority rule must be respected and obeyed. The National Convention, the supreme will of the Order, ended the discussion, (fully and freely carried on for more than a year,) when it declared for the admission of all loyal women by a vote of 76 to seven, or in the proportion of 11 to one, and it should be remembered that however it may be with individual Corps, the Order at large Army stand for their admission, as do the army nurses and the wives and mothers who did active be the golden link of Charity which binds the Fraternity of the comrades with the Loyalty of the communities in which they live, and so link themselves in a trinity which expresses all that is glorious in human endeavor, or possible in great achievements of heart and hand. Work and not words is the duty of the hour. By command of

KATE B. SHERWOOD, EMMA D. SIBLEY, National President. National Secretary.

ANNA ELLA CARROLL FUND. A circular letter, prepared by the National President and indorsed by Commander-in-Chief Kountz, is now in press and will be issued Carroll to the attention of the Posts and Corps in every Department. In the meantime the following are among the recent noble responses through THE TRIBUNE, addressed to the National President:

A CRUMB OF COMFORT. We are glad to add one more crumb of comfort to one who has been faithful to the discharge of duty. The members of Col. Jas. H. Childs W. R. C., of Pennsylvania, send the sum of $5 to be added to the Anna Ella Carroll fund.—Mrs. Elizabeth T, On Relief of Army Workers and Widows and Millar, Pittsburg, Oct. 3, 1884.

GOD BLESS THE DEAR WOMEN.

Although I am not a member of the G.A.R., I claim to be an old soldier, and am doing my best to organize a Post here, and have great sympathy for your W.R.C., and think you are doing a lasting good. I take THE TRIBUNE and saw your appeal in behalf of Anna Ella Carroll, and send you 10 cents. It is but little, but if all old soldiers would send 10 cents she would not want. God bless the dear women who sacrified home, friends and heaith to help the soldiers and save our country .- A. P. Burrell, Co. F, 7th Mich. Cav., Atlanta, Mo., Oct. 6,

AN OREGON COMRADE'S GOOD WORDS. Among the cheering messages received at National Headquarters the past week, is the following letter from Comrade O. Summers, Commander George Wright Post, No. 1, Portland, Oreg., who writes as follows:

In compliance with orders from your Headquarters I duly instituted Geo. Wright Post Relief Corps, No. 2, Friday evening, Sept. 19, and installed the following list of officers: Pres., Mrs. Rosa M. Martin; S. V.-P., Mrs. Clara T. Summers; J.V.-P., Mrs. Anna Fishburn; See'y, Mrs. Jennie L. Schwab; Treas., Mrs. Jennie M. Sears; Chap., Mrs. Millie E. Morse; Con., Mrs. Mary L. Wray; Guard, Mrs. Mary E. Chamberlain. The Corps starts out with a charter list of 23 names of the best of material to enter into a work such as they are organized for, and I predict that this Corps will be one of the most efficient and vigilant in your noble and Christian work. It is auxiliary to one of the best Posts on the Pacific coast and one that can justly feel proud of its record of charitable and circuit of fraternal deeds. I can assure you that it gives my Post pleasure to take into partner-ship those who are jointly interested with us in keeping alive the memories of the past; and who in the G.A.R. to-day but can recall some of their many deeds of thoughtfulness and care as to the small wants of the boys at the front. How our hearts swell with pride as we recall the attention paid by that noblest band of women ever known to history, the Ladies' Sanitary Commission of 1861 and 1865. If it had not been for their kind words of cheer many a poor boy who is alive to-day might have been numbered with the dead. The some spirit of patriotism that prompted the women of the North then is the patriotic love that actuates those now whom we greet as comrades of the G.A.R. It is pleasing for us as we grow weaker (and as old Rip Van Winkle said, "Oh! these rheumatics," which start through our old battlescarred bodies) to share the work with them and receive their kind attentions. In conclusion, wish you and all of your devoted band Godspeed and if there should be such a thing as reward hereafter rest assured that the ladies of the Woman's Relief Corps will reap an abundant share. And such is the wish of your obedient servant, in F., C. and L.-O. SUMMERS, Commander of Geo Wright Post.
